Naiveltufyrrzinews

Friday July 6, 2012 Issue #3

The Naivelt Hills Will Be Alive with the Sound of Music

... starting next week Thursday evening!

B ack by popular demand, bigger and better than ever, Naivelt Music Camp begins Thursday evening, July 12! Come out and meet Martin van de Ven, Lucas Meilach-Boston and Sophia Perlman, who will be 'orchestrating' this Musical Adventure.

Martin and Sophia will open Music Camp with a Meet & Greet on Thursday, July 12th at 8:00 p.m. to give us an overview of the Camp structure, and introduce the music we will be playing. Morning sessions will be

While he is somewhat of a musical icon at Naivelt, for those of you who haven't met Martin he is a rare combination of professional performing musician who also has the infinite patience and skill to teach and inspire all levels of student instrumentalists. Our Naivelt Orchestra has all the instruments that happen to appear with owners who range from very talented and accomplished to those with less accomplishment but infinite enthusiasm. Martin pays very careful attention to all and creates an environment where everyone regardless of expertise is recognized and contributes. Hearing is believing!

Lucas Meilach-Boston, a familiar face around Naivelt, will return to support Martin's efforts with the Orchestra and work with various ensemble groups. Lucas brings his strong classical and jazz background which complements Martin's versatile Klezmer style.

We're in for a treat!

Continued on page 2

The Naivelt News is here to fulfill all your "newsy" needs!

This year's editor is Ezra Lipton

Deadline for submissions : Monday midnight!
naiveltnews@gmail.com

Saturday July 7

Aquafit with Barb 1-2 pm at the Pool $2 participants $1 pool users

Annual Progressive Feast 5 pm

Hill 1 - Appetizers (outside #17)

Hill 2 - Main Course (in the circle)
Hill 3 - Desserts (outside #23)

Sunday July 8

Heritage Plaque Ceremony and Bagel Brunch

10 am Lasowsky Centre Peace Garden

Join us for this historic event commemorating Naivelt's designation as a heritage site in the City of Brampton. We are pleased to welcome special guests from Brampton's Heritage Department. The ceremony will include our bagel brunch and be followed by the official Welcome to Camp and 2012 Orientation by your Camp Committee.

Aquafit with Barb 1-2 at the Pool $1-2

Save the date
UJPO Community Meeting,
Sunday July 22nd at the Lasowsky. More details to come.

This year we welcome Sophia Perlman whose impressive performance record is matched by her choral work with both children and adults. She is excited about joining the Naivelt community and is busy pulling together an exciting choral program to accommodate our various ages and talents.

Once again, we look forward to the 'choir' joining the 'orchestra' for a rousing concert on Saturday July 21. Mark your calendars, tell your friends and relatives, and help us make the The Naivelt Hills alive with the sounds of music!

-Paula David

Remembering Sybil Goldstein

Our community mourns the passing of our dear friend Sybil Goldstein. Sybil has been involved in the Camp Naivelt community for many years, contributing her artistic talents to many of our programs. She will be greatly missed.

Shiva is being observed at:

100 Bain Avenue #31 Maples - North Maples Courtyard, Toronto on Sunday and Monday July 8th & 9th from 9 a.m. to sunset.

Memorial donations honouring Sybil's memory may be sent to the Sybil Goldstein Fund, c/o Scotiabank, 1188 Danforth Ave., Toronto M4J 1M3.

On behalf of Camp Naivelt and the UJPO, our deepest condolences to Jacob and the extended family.

FRINGE FESTIVAL – LIMITED NUMBER OF "FREE" TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR:

Musical Pawns

Company: Lost Music Productions

Musical Pawns mixes fact and fantasy, humour and pathos in attempting to explain why David Nowakowsky's musical masterpieces have disappeared for almost 100 years.

A musical treat by North America's best singing actors.

Tarragon Theatre, 30 Bridgman Avenue

Mon. July 9th, 8:00 p.m. Tues. July 10th, 3:00 p.m Thurs. July 12th, 12:00 noon Fri. July 13th, 8:45 p.m. Sat. July 14th, 4:00 p.m.

Contact the Winchevsky Centre office to reserve (416) 789-5502 or info@winchevskycentre.org

Say Hello To...

Christine Carter & Xavier Macia Natalia Macia i Carter (16) Danielle Macia i Carter (13)

Hill 3 #12

Irene Simanavicius and Yukija Petrauskas - Hill 2 #10

Youth Employment Opportunities Galore!

- Bike Maintenance Cabin (experience req'd)
- A/V Assistant (movie nights & programs)
- Child Care during Bagel Brunches and Music & Arts Camps
- Set-up and take-down (Lasowsky Centre programs)

If you are interested in any of these positions, contact Esther Pflug at epflug@rogers.com or 416-817-5364.

Next weekend

Friday July 13

Music Camp!

Friday Night Movie
The Ritz, Time and Movie TBA

Saturday July 14

Aquafit with Barb 1-2 pm at the Pool

Film: Dykes Planning Tykes: Queering the Family Tree

With Rachel Epstein, discussion following 8 pm at the Lasowsky Centre

Teen Pizza Party, 11 pm @ the Lac

Sunday July 15

Bagel Brunch: The Naivelt-Bolivarian Connection and UJPO Tours: Why, How, Results, and Obligations

Ronnee Jaeger & Sam Blatt 10 am Hill 2 #31

Aquafit with Barb 1-2 pm at the Pool