A lazy day adventure down the river...

Two weeks ago Lucas Meilach-Boston and Ezra Lipton set off on their first rafting adventure down the Credit River. Hilarie Klapman snapped this picture of them. They mastered the Credit's smooth curves, and suffered only minor injuries from rocks. Their craft, meant for only 120 lbs, held them strong, making its 9th voyage down the river. Rafting is a great way to explore down stream, sometimes make some friends who are sitting on the banks, and relax for an afternoon.

The Polar Bear Awards

Every year there is the unofficial award that brings the recipients bragging rights, a story to tell, and maybe some goosebumps. This award is the Polar Bear Award, given to the first brave few who decide to take a dip in Eldorado Pool, often within the first few moments of its opening for the season. In the past Maddy Wintermule has tested the waters for us, but this year, on June 16th, Marsha Fine, Charna Gord, and Mari Drexler took the walk down the hill and dove in first. They were followed the next day by aquafit instructor extraordinaire, Barb Lipton. The pool's temperature was barely at 70 degrees! Kudos to these polar bears!
