

Naiveltניוועלט News

Friday, July 8, 2011 Issue #2

Progressive Feast

It's another year, and so in accordance with one of Naivelt's newest annual traditions, the progressive feast will take place this Saturday. The feast is a chance for Naivelters new and old to come together with one of the things we dearly love, food. And so, in classic Naivelt fashion the feast is a potluck.

Progressive has a back and forth, on and off relationship with Naivelt, but all politics aside, the feast is progressive in the sense that it quite literally progresses through the Camp, starting at Hill 1 and meandering and mingling its way to Hill 3 for dessert.

What is perhaps progressive about the feast, besides its physical attribute, is that it allows a community of people to come together, and spend a few hours sharing conversations and laughs, something that can be hard to find especially in our busy everyday lives.

The feast will start at Hill 1 for appetizers at 6 PM and continue to Hill 2 for mains, and lastly come to Hill 3 for dessert.

Please BYOB, cutlery, plates and enough food for your family and 4 others. Each hill should coordinate where the food will be set up, for each part of the feast.

- Ezra Lipton

Your Naivelt News Editors are here to fulfill all your "newsy" needs!
Hilarie Klapman, Hanna Novak and Ezra Lipton
Deadline for submissions : Tuesday midnight!
naiveltnews11@gmail.com

Saturday, July 9

Naivelt Open Swim
1-2 PM at the Eldorado Pool
Adults $2, kids are free.

First Aid Workshop
3:30 -5 PM
Next to Lasowsky
Centre

Held by Luke Halstead, Hill 2 #27
See More on page

Progressive Feast 6-8 PM

Sunday, July 10

Bagel Brunch 10 AM
Introduction to Camp - Get to know all about the different rules and other important info about Naivelt! Good for the seasoned 'velter, and the rookies!
Hill 1 #23

Aquafit with Barb: 1-2 PM
at the Eldorado Pool
Adults $2, kids are free.

Saturday, July 16

Aquafit with Barb: 1PM
Phil Ochs Documentary 8PM

NEXT WEEK

Sunday, July 17

Bagel Brunch: 10 AM
David Chudnovsky on Guitar Making in Spain Hill 2 #17

Aquafit with Barb: 1 PM

Naivelt Singers, Prop Making

In 2008 and 2009, many Naivelters were kind enough to join Jumblied Theatre in creating and performing Oy Di Velt Vet. Vern Yinger, which told the stories of Naivelt and Naivelters over the years. Jumblied Theatre is a community arts company that "makes art in everyday and unexpected places with, for and about the people and stories found there, thus creating "transient utopias and far-reaching ripples." The company was founded by artistic director Ruth Howard, of Hill 3, and has included, employed and mentored many Naivelters. For the last three years, Jumblied has been working in Scarborough, with the many different people who live in the suburbs, motels and highrises out past Kennedy Station. In December of 2011, Jumblied will be putting on a production of our adaptation of Shakespeare's The Winter's Tale. The production, called Like An Old Tale, will bring together our many participants from Offshoot and projects around the city, including Arts4All, at Davenport Perth; MABELLEarts in Etobikoko, of which Leah Houston (Hill 2) is the Artistic Director.

We would like to invite Naivelters to be part of our production. If you came to my bagel brunch last Sunday, you may have heard the story of the Winter's Tale, or sampled some of the music composed for the play. If not, you will have lots of opportunity to hear about it, and here are two initial opportunities:

1. THE NAIVELT SINGERS

The Naivelt Singers are a group of Naivelters and friends who sing songs that reflect the politics and concerns of Naivelters, past and present.

We include singers of all ages and all experience levels. You don't need any prior singing experience to sing with us.

This summer, as well as working on expanding our repertoire of historical songs, we have the opportunity to explore some new music.

We will be working on some original music for Like And Old Tale, composed for by Julie Pamer. This music includes a lot of sound-scapes and sound-making as well as singing, and so it is very accessible to everyone.

Over music week, we have the privilege of exploring music from a song cycle composed by Martin Van de Ven titled Being Margolia, which is inspired by the stories and voices of Oy Di Velt. and will be re-worked specially for our group.

We will perform at the end of the summer with accompanying music and will work on basic singing, music reading and part-singing. The Naivelt Singers is really fun, and we'd love to have you join us.

Say Hello To...

Eve Danziger and Robin Blue will be renting Michael and Leah's cabin on Hill 2 #32 for the month of July

-Michael Burt

First Aid Class

Luke Halstead, son of Gillian of Hill 2, will lead a workshop on first aid with an emphasis on emergency care for the children & elders. Hopefully we won't need to use anything we learn in the workshop, but since the first few minutes in a medical emergency can be crucial, it's important to know first aid. Everyone is welcome.

Class will be outside of the Lasowsky Centre starting at 3:30 and going until 5 PM

This summer, the Naivelt Singers will be rehearsing Friday Evenings in the Lasowsky Centre. During Music Week (July 24-30), we will meet every afternoon (times to be announced) and sing in the final Music Week concert. Come to the initial rehearsal this week July 8 at 7:30 to meet each other, hear some of the music we will be exploring, learn about sound scapes and start singing!

Contact me (Shifra) at any time during the summer if you have questions about the Naivelt Singers, I am on Hill 3, cottage 12 and am reachable by email at queen.thayet@gmail.com

2. PROP MAKING

This week, Sean Frey, Ruth Howard and Helah Cooper, some of the show's designers (joined by some other Jumblied Artists) will be doing some prop-making up at Naivelt. If you are around Monday - Friday and are interested in helping with paper mache, sewing, stencil-making and more come by Cottage 12, Hill 3 and see what we're up to. If we're not in, we'll leave a note telling you where and when to join in. This is very casual, and you're welcome to just drop by. Young children should bring a parent or older companion with them, but no experience is required.

We look forward to having you be part of this exciting project. Please get in touch any time with questions - I'll be up at Naivelt most of the summer and not difficult to find.

-Shifra Cooper

Cottage 12, Hill 3

queen.thayet@gmail.com

Find out more information about Jumblied Theatre (including pictures and videos from Oy Di Velt.) visit www.jumbliedtheatre.org

- Shifra

