Happy Canada Day! Fireworks Tonight!

Thanks to Wagner Paredes, Valerie Morris and family, we have Canada Day Fireworks tonight on Hill 3 as soon as it's dark enough. Sun sets at 9 pm. Come celebrate Canada Day, Pride Weekend and the start of Summer 2016!

Remember to stay safe and stand back.

A Message from the Naivelt Programming Committee

We have programmed an exciting summer of fun and thought-provoking material. In addition to Music Camp (July 10-16) and Art Camp (August 8-13), other highlights include: a preview of our very own Ester Reiter's book on the Jewish left in Canada, and a Rock 'n' Roll dance party with the Axes of Evil, featuring Naivelter Phil Ciglen. Our Peace Tea speaker this year is Nigel Barriffe, president of the Board of Urban Alliance on Race Relations, speaking about Black Lives Matter. Sunday yoga and aquafit Saturdays and Sundays are back by popular demand.

Firefighters Visit Camp Naivelt

As part of our fire preparedness efforts, Evan, Jacob, Robert and Roy of the Maintenance Subcommittee hosted firefighters from nearby Stations 204 and 212 on a Naivelt tour on Sunday, May 1. In almost two hours of chats we covered access, way-finding, fire prevention, and anti-arson ideas. We all left knowing more about how each others' processes work. We're working on a 'quick tips' guide coming to all cabins — stay posted!

Naivelt Free Market

On Saturday, July 2, from 3 to 7 pm, there is the Naivelt Free Market, an opportunity to find new homes for your unwanted treasures.

"Just put it out at the front of your cottage during the time of the event, while preparing for the Progressive Feast," suggests Tina Blazer, "and see your items fly off the lawn! And walk about visiting others and see what you need."

P.S - You are responsible for getting rid of any left over items.

P.P.S. - Please do NOT put any unwanted items under the Hill 2 bulletin board OR at the Lasowsky Centre. It just becomes someone else's clutter to deal with.

Eldorado Park Pool Hours

The pool is open and Naivelt has exclusive use of it on Saturdays and Sundays from 1-2 pm.

Aquafit will be in the deeper area.

The pool remains open to the public from 2 pm to 6 pm daily, sometimes longer on very hot days.

Pool Admission

$2.00 Per child
$2.15 Teen 14-17
$2.15 Adults
$1.40 55+

Summer passes are available. An adult pass is $20.75. Ask at the pool office for family rates.

Yoga at the Ritz!

by Janice Meilach and Rachel Kellogg

Rachel Kellogg's yoga classes last summer at Naivelt were such a success that the program committee asked Rachel to teach it again! This year there will be two instructors, so we will be able to run a yoga program all summer long.

Janice Meilach will be joining Rachel this year and they are both delighted to be able to offer their skills as yoga instructors. They will be offering yoga all summer on Sunday afternoon from 3-4 pm at the Ritz beginning this Sunday, July 3rd.

Please bring your own yoga mat if you have one, but if you don't, come anyway as we will have extras. Here is a brief introduction to both Rachel and Janice:

Rachel Kellogg is a RYT 200 yoga teacher and is registered through the Yoga Alliance. She received her yoga teacher training in 2014 at the Marianne Wells Yoga School in Costa Rica, and has been practicing yoga regularly for nearly four years at various studios in Toronto.

Rachel guides her yoga classes with the philosophy that yoga truly is for everyone. She leads a gentle, yet challenging practice, with lots of variations in order to ensure that the class is rewarding for all levels.

Rachel is connected to the Naivelt community through her parents, Abigail Bakan and Paul Kellogg, her aunt and uncle Nicole Bennett and Jacob Bakan and family friend Ester Reiter.

Rachel will be teaching Yoga at the Ritz on July 17, 24, and 31 as well as August 14 and 28.

Janice Meilach has just finished her 750-hour two-year yoga training program with the Esther Myers Yoga Studio in Toronto. She requires a few more teaching hours in order to complete the program requirements and to register with the Yoga Alliance. Janice practiced for 20 years as a yoga student before enrolling as a teacher.

In addition to being a yoga instructor, Janice is a body centred psychotherapist who is registered with the College of Psychotherapists of Ontario. She currently works at Queen West Community Health Centre, as well as in private practice. Most recently, Janice was able to bring her yoga skills to the health centre and offered a "Trauma Sensitive Yoga for Women" class.

Janice offers restorative yoga and her approach encourages mindful movement with particular awareness to movement, stillness, and the breath. Her classes are also open to all levels and ages.

Janice will be teaching Yoga at the Ritz July 3rd to 10th and August 7th to 21st.

Naivelt's first Wellness Weekend, held the last weekend in June, was fun and nourishing to the spirit as well as the body. It was a very packed two-day event. Many, many thanks to organizers Ingrid Bredin, Marsha Fine, Barb Lipton and Charna Gord and to the workshop facilitators Barbara Morris, Janice Meilach and Paula David.

Welcome Weekend Visitors

Tom and Linda Kreiner, together with their dog Shrimp, will be visiting Camp this weekend. They will be staying in their trailer down by the Lak. Don't be surprised if there is a pop-up musical performance on Hill 1 early Saturday afternoon, or on Hill 2 throughout the long weekend.
