Dear Friends,

We hope that you and your family will join us for the United Jewish People's Order (UJPO) & Morris Winchevsky School's secular humanistic celebrations of the Jewish New Year at the Winchevsky Centre.

Our contemporary community observances of Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur include the traditional blowing of the shofar, meaningful readings, poetry, and Yiddish, Hebrew and English music led by prominent Toronto musicians – David Wall (vocals) and Marilyn Lerner (piano) at Rosh Hashonah and David Wall and Kevin Barrett (guitar) at Yom Kippur.

We also offer special holiday programs for children ages 3-12.

Traditional holiday refreshments will be served at the conclusion of our Rosh Hashonah observance.

Please also consider donating to our 'Gut Yor' (Good Year) campaign – these donations are dedicated to educational programming for children and youth through our Morris Winchevsky School. Your generosity and support are appreciated.

We look forward to ushering in the New Year with you!

A Gut Yor,

Maxine Hermolin
Executive Director

Rosh Hashonah Monday October 3 – 10:30 a.m.
