Duties and Responsibilities include:

- Unit/Lesson planning in conjunction with the Education Director
- Teaching on Sunday mornings
- Professional development and team meetings as necessary
- Special event/holiday preparation and participation

Successful Candidates will have:

- Experience with teaching, facilitation and/or program leadership
- Background in Jewish history, culture & holidays
- Understanding of progressive secular Jewish philosophy
- Background in experiential learning
- Creative, child-centered approach to teaching
- Yiddish and/or Hebrew an asset (not a requirement)
- Artistic ability a plus (eg. music, drama, new media, other arts-based activities)
- Creative, enthusiastic, energetic personality
