Welcome to Camp Naivelt's Fabulous Summer Programming 2017!

Your program committee is excited to bring you an interesting package of Saturday Night Cultural Programming, Bagel Brunches featuring speakers on a wide range of social justice issues, Music Week (July 23-29), Arts Camp (August 8-11) Naivlet Pool time and Aquafit, Sunday afternoon Yoga Classes and the Peace Tea in August to commemorate the Atomic Bombing of Hiroshima. A special treat in July is ex-Naivelter Allan Merovitz's play "HORSES" on July 15th, which is part of Saturday Night Cultural Programming. Another highlight is a talk by international activist Stephen Lewis on July 9th as part of our Bagel Brunch Series. Please see the Program Calendar for more details and don't forget to check the Naivelt News and weekly e-blasts for last minute changes in programming.

We will be kicking the season off on Saturday July 1st, where we hope you can all join us for the Naivelt Free Market from 3-7 PM followed by the Progressive Feast and then ending with fireworks. On Sunday Nicole and Jacob will be hosting one of their famous bagel brunches and Naivelter Ross McKie will be MC'ing the Opening Bagel Brunch.

This year there will be a program committee person at each event to make sure that things run smoothly. Please lend a hand to this committee person if they ask for help either before, during or after the event as it really does take an entire community to build a wonderful summer season.

Thanks to all the members of the programme committee: Ester Reiter, Barb Lipton, Barbara Blaser, Paula David, Shlomit Segal, Jenny Lewis, Ingrid Bredin, Tina Blazer and to Michael Burtt my co-chair. Please feel free to email one of us or tell us at camp about your ideas for future programming or to give us feedback about this summer's programming.

See you up at camp!

Janice Meilach
Co-chair Programming Committee 2017.

Opening Bagel Brunch

Come join in the fun as we kick off the 2017 Season!

This year we are aiming for a more relaxed and less formal format. Ross McKie - a new Cabin owner on the circle with his partner Debra Felstead, has been around Naivelt on and off for many years. In his day to day - Ross is an accomplished and acerbic comic/actor/writer and bon vivant. He won't be specific about what he has planned, so we encourage everyone to come enjoy. This is an all ages appropriate event (the kids will love it), so no specific childcare will be provided during this bagel brunch.

The BB will start with some important words from Tina Blazer, our Camp Committee Chair and Janice Meilach, our Program Committee Co-chair.

Thanks,
Jenny

HI!

Hello my friends! Many of you already know me, but allow me to introduce myself; my name is Amelia Cameron (I belong to Tina and Roy), and you can find me in Cabin 14 on Hill 2. It is my first time running the newsletter, so please feel free to email me with any suggestions or questions at naiveltnews15@gmail.com. Submissions are also, as always, more than welcome! If you'd like to write some recaps, reviews, stories, poetry, or submit art, please do so! (This should all be directed to the Naivelt News Gmail.) I'd like to bring you all the juiciest gossip and hottest stories this summer. I've loved this community my entire life, and it's so exciting to be able to combine my passion for language, writing, communication etc. with this cool as heck place! I'm looking forward to a great summer, and remember to always grab a copy of the newsletter to keep updated on the happenings in and around our community!

Pride!

Toronto's second annual Pride Month was this June! As always, thousands of spectators and participants showed their support for the LGBTQ+ community in the culmination of Pride Month at Sunday's parade. The procession started at Bloor and Church streets, and wound it's way down to Yonge and Dundas square, where the festivities continued late into the evening! Naivelt's own Lucah Rosenberg-Lee was featured on the front page of the Toronto Star last weekend in an article about the widespread LGBT community who do not usually visit Toronto's gay village. Other exciting appearance in the parade included Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and family, Premier Kathleen Wynne, Mayor John Tory, Black Lives Matter protestors, and First Nations Chief Perry Bellegarde. All in all, Toronto's 37th annual Pride Parade was a major success in turning the city into a rainbow for the weekend! Happy Pride!

Hellos!

Welcome Jenny Lewis and son Zimri (5) - Hill 2, #11; Judy Roseberg - Hill 1, #11; Jessica Goldstein and Jack Gelbloom - Hill 1, #9; Ross Mckie and Debra Felstead and their sons Benjamin (16) and Declan (19) - Hill 2, #1; Khaleen Little and Mark Day with their daughters Celeste and Simone (7) and Daphne (5) - Hill 3, #15

Junk Removal Day A Success

A successful junk pick-up day on Tuesday. Camp Naivelt is now 2.9 tonnes lighter than it was before! Thanks to Tina at Spot on Organizing and her awesome team for helping to clean up our spaces.

Bike repair!

Anybody interested in repairing bikes this summer? The Bike Cabin (Hill 2 #15) is chock full of bikes that are longing to be ridden! If you have any bike knowledge, feel free to do some fixer-uppers and/or borrow a bike! A reminder that the bikes from the Bike Cabin cannot be taken down into Eldorado Park and must be returned after use. Happy biking!

This Saturday July 1st, from 3:00 to 7:00 is the Naivelt Free Market

Here's how it works. Put out any items you no longer want in front of your cabin. Then walk the three hills before, during or after our progressive feast. Your items will hopefully find a new home that day, and you'll find new treasures for your place.

BUT.....

If any items are left, you are responsible for removing them by end of the weekend. Please do not drop it off in front of the notice board at the intersection of Hill 2.

Suggestions to inspire you:

- Clothing, shoes and boots
- Jewelry
- Hats, gloves, mittens and scarves
- Books, records, compact disks, video tapes and DVDs
- Games, toys and sports equipment
- Housewares: dishes, glassware, kitchen utensils, lamps and small appliances

- Collectibles, antiques, knickknacks and other giftware
- Hand tools and small power tools
- Domestic: linens, curtains, blankets, etc.
- Electronics: Stereos, radios, VCRs, DVD players
- Please indicate if electronics and small power tools are working!!

Huge Congrats to the Grads!!!

Three of our own have just graduated grade six from the Grove Community School! Make sure to give them big hugs when you see Maiyán, Elorah or Dashiell around camp.
