Letter from the Editor.

Welcome to the ninth and final issue of this summer's Naivelt Newsletter. It has been such a wonderful season full of music, art, and learning. As always, we have had a truly colourful two months of programming with something for everybody! It has been such a pleasure running the newsletter for the first time this summer! I have loved communicating with all of you and hearing all the stories! Thank you all for sharing your excitement and adventure with me! It is also imperative that I extend a few other thank-yous on behalf of all of us in the community. Janice and the Programming committee have done an exceptional job this year keeping us busy. From Stephen Lewis' Bagel Brunch to last minute changes - like The Big Lebowski at the Lasowsky - everything were total hits! Thank you so much to Tina and the Camp Committee for keeping our ship sailing smoothly in preparation and during this summer. Thank you to Rachel Epstein for being so hands-on in your first few months as Executive Director (and thanks for taking over from Maxine because now she can hang out with me more). And thanks to all of you for participating and making this another amazing season!

Zimri's Foosball Tournament!

On Monday, August 7 at 2:15 the First Annual Zimri Invitational Camp Naivelt Foosball Tournament was held at the Lac. It was open to all ages and all ages certainly intended! Thanks to Jenny Lewis and Max Wallace for convening this historic first time tourney! The most significant result of the tournament was when an internationally known ringer , who will remain nameless, came in from Toronto, only to be up handed in three out of four games by the local talent Simon Bakan. Simon swept into first place, followed by Dashiell York and Zimri Lewis in second and third places respectively. All were winners however , with freezies distributed to all. Tristan and Jesse provided a gritty rookie entrance to competitive play. Max Wallace unfortunately was unable to win a single game and insists that this one time humiliation will not keep him from the game. Ann Pohl made a surprise appearance acquitting herself admirably!
